Expert tips

"My motto is 'a little goes a long way' and remember you must always look yourself. Make-up is only there to enhance your features and bring out that special glow to your face. A soft makeup style with a slight bronzed contouring and a feathery dust of highlight to bring a glow for that natural island style, slight pop of liner and lashes to enhance your eyes for that romantic look.

Hair is always worn down in beach waves or messy up do's or even a braid to give you the feel of the tropics." (Clint Chambers – Silver Strand Salon)

PHOTOGRAPHY & VIDEOGRAPHY

Long after the scent of the frangipanis have faded, and the dress is hanging up in the spare wardrobe, your photos of your wedding day may be one of the only reminders you have!

Photography is very subjective, and it is important you find a photographer that suits your personal style, and that you feel comfortable with, as they will be the one to capture your most intimate moments.

Budget is only one part of the consideration when choosing the right one for you! The standard of photographers in Fiji is very high, with many an award gracing their bookshelves! Below is a small selection of our favourites, and there are many more, but look through their websites and see what appeals.

CREDIT - LEEZETT BIRCH

CREDIT - KONRAD THORPE

You may not be including video in your budget, thinking it may be overkill, but trust us, you will want both. We promise you will not regret spending the money. You may not think you want to relive every minute, but with so much happening on your wedding day that you have been meticulously planning for months many of the details may be a blur and you will be desperate for a way to remember it.

With a wedding video, you'll be able to hear your guests oohhh and aaahhh, hear the speeches and laughter and of course your first dance! And all the bits you might miss while you are busy! A videographer can capture these moments on film – it's worth it we promise!

Expert tips

Choose on style not just price, after all these will be the lifelong reminders of your special day! Recent surveys (trust us) found that some 60% of newlywed couples regretted not having video. Still photos are wonderful and will provide amazing memories, but wedding videos capture both movement and sound.

Expert tips

"As a wedding DJ it is their job to shape the mood and vibe of your wedding, so it is important to decide what sort of reception you want. Do you just want some subtle tunes for a chilled out vibe, or to party the night away. Make sure to give your DJ a list of any favourite songs that you know will get people up and dancing, and also any "do not play" ones as well. Choose your MC wisely as well, to avoid any potential issues and to ensure they will make the evening run smoothly." (DJ William Lee - Universal Tunes)
