ABOUT THE RESORT

When it comes to Fiji resorts, Plantation Island Resort is a place for everyone - romantics, families and groups. Nestled on the 553-acre Malolo LaiLai Island, part of the Mamanuca Group of islands, and is only 16km offshore west of Nadi International Airport

Arrive, kick back and relax while you experience the warmth and friendliness of the staff who promise to make your holiday memorable.

Plantation Island Resort has a relaxed atmosphere but bursts with activities and Fiji cultural experiences. Chill out at one of the many pools or swim in the glittering blue water lagoon, take part in daily activities or sip a cocktail at one of the many bars, watching a glorious sunset.

There's always something magical to do at Plantation Island Resort.

WHAT WE LOVE

A good value and unpretentious island resort, heaps of activities and it's more durable and robust for families and exuberant children. It is more nontraditional buildings and big play areas with a busy, thriving atmosphere, so something for everyone.

Easy access to other resorts on this island such as Musket Cove to ring the changes for meals etc

PLANTATION ISLAND RESORT

RESTAURANTS & BARS

The Ol' Copra Shed Restaurant & Brigham Bar

The Ol' Copra Shed is the heartbeat for Fiji holidays for families. This one's an island restaurant featuring beachside buffet dining at Plantation Island Resort "central". Feel the Fijian smile and attention to detail with the staff and enjoy the relaxed vibe with nightly themed buffets and live string band music.

Black Coral Grill

Black Coral is a beauty for allcomers to Plantation Island Resort with something for everyone. It's a la carte Pacific Rim cuisine featuring a quiet, intimate atmosphere and loads to choose from whether it be fish, beef, salads, vegie dishes and more. It's not unusual to hear from those who have had the Black Coral experience "this is the best value for great food in Fiji" so make sure you give it a whirl.

Tavola Restaurant & Bar

Set on one of the most spectacular locations in the Mamanuca Islands, the brand new Tavola Restaurant & Bar offers a array of mouth-watering flavours to suit every palate. The menu is light, fresh, traditionally Fijian, with Asian flair and cultural touches from all around the Pacific Rim and beyond. Enjoy beachside and poolside dining at it's finest!

Mini Mart

Did someone say ice cream? You betcha, head for the Mini Mart in the boatshed building for a cool, refreshing ice-cream, cold drink, snacks and more.

Flame Tree Restaurant

Think adults only fine dining, beachside, ambient and romantic - and only a five minute walk away at Lomani Island Resort. The cocktail bar unleashes a tantalizing selection of drinks such as creamy coladas and refreshing mojitos as well as Aussie and Kiwi wines, French champagnes, and local and imported beers and spirits. Flavours of Pacific Rim cuisine and Fijian influenced dishes that feature fresh seafood and locally sourced ingredients

Cocohut Espresso & Frappe Bar

One thing holidayers crave when away from their favourite café haunts is a place that serves great espresso ... or a funky frappe! Say hello to Cocohut, the kind of the island for espresso, frappe and fresh juice. Oh yeah, there's fresh coconuts to ensure you really get into the spirit of Fiji holidays for families.

Snack Bar

Set right on the beachfront, if you're looking for something easy and speedy, the Snack Bar is renowned for a great selection of burgers, salads, sandwiches, hot dogs, pizza, chips and pies. Essential fare for Fiji holidays for families, couples and everyone else who will no doubt find themselves after that quick fix on the food front.
